[REDACTED] whose Forms 57 we had sometime ago and in whom both Admiral Millenkoetter and General Sibert have some interest, was in today and saw [REDACTED] and me. He seemed an alert and likeable young man, apparently well-grounded in intelligence, but without editorial experience. He does not want to go back overseas in the near future (he used our material in Tokyo when working with G-2 on Southeast Asia).

It seems to me that the best bet for him is a CAF-9 editorial job at [REDACTED] after training for several months in the Far East Section here if there is a departmental job to put him in.
